

Otto the weirdo had
A very strange bestie.

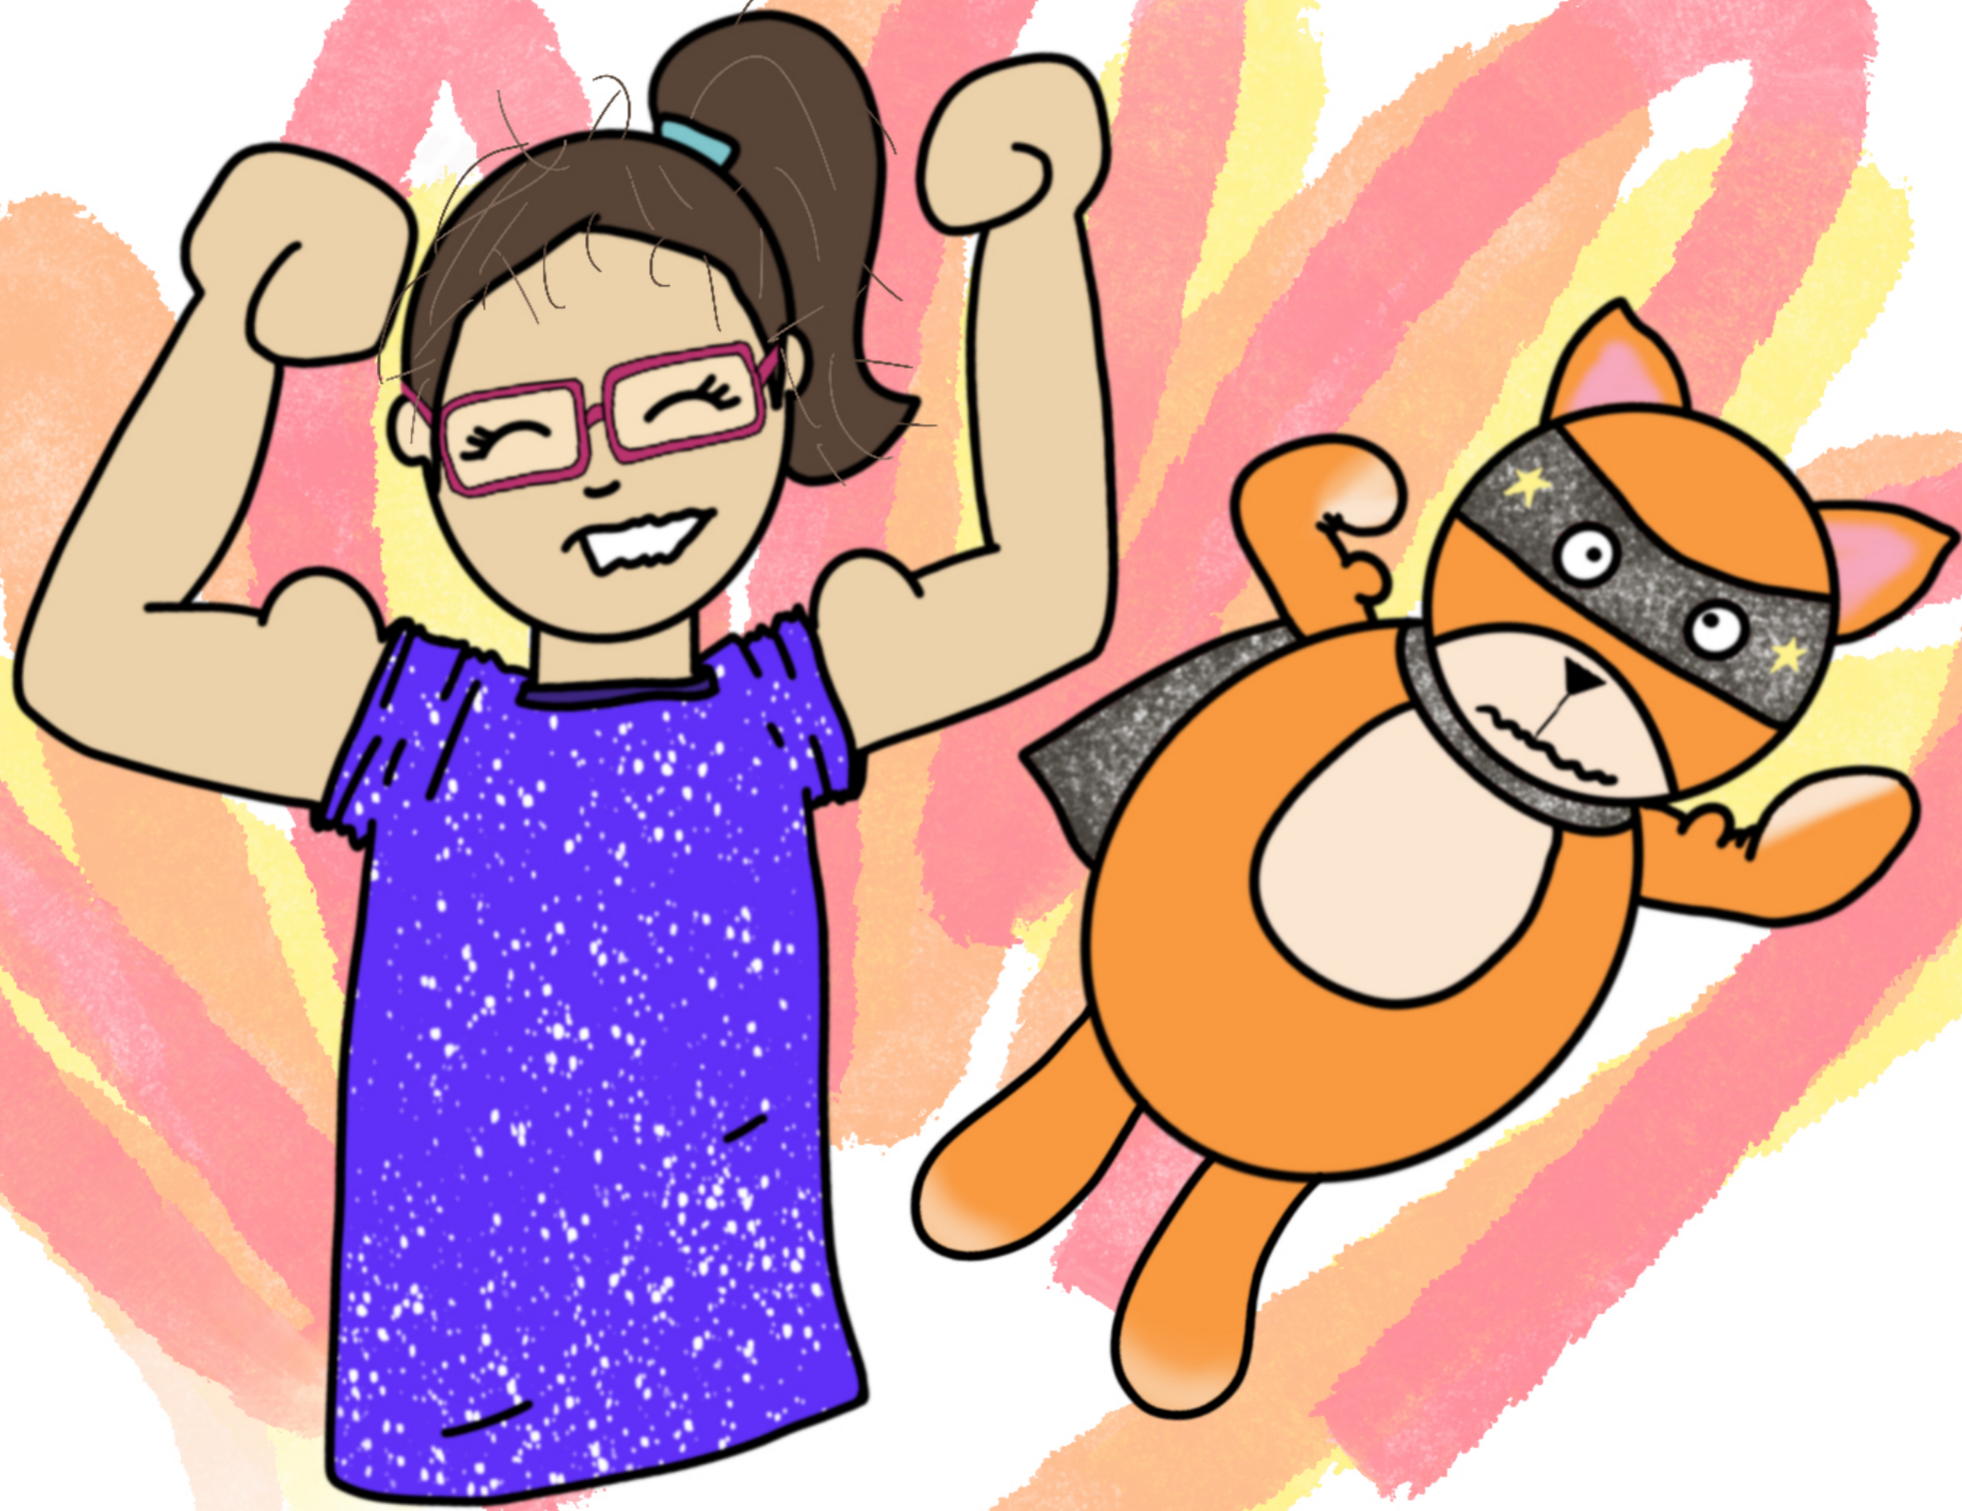

She'd walk around with a fox
And her hair was very messy. 1

Xaxa was his cousin and
She was awfully funny

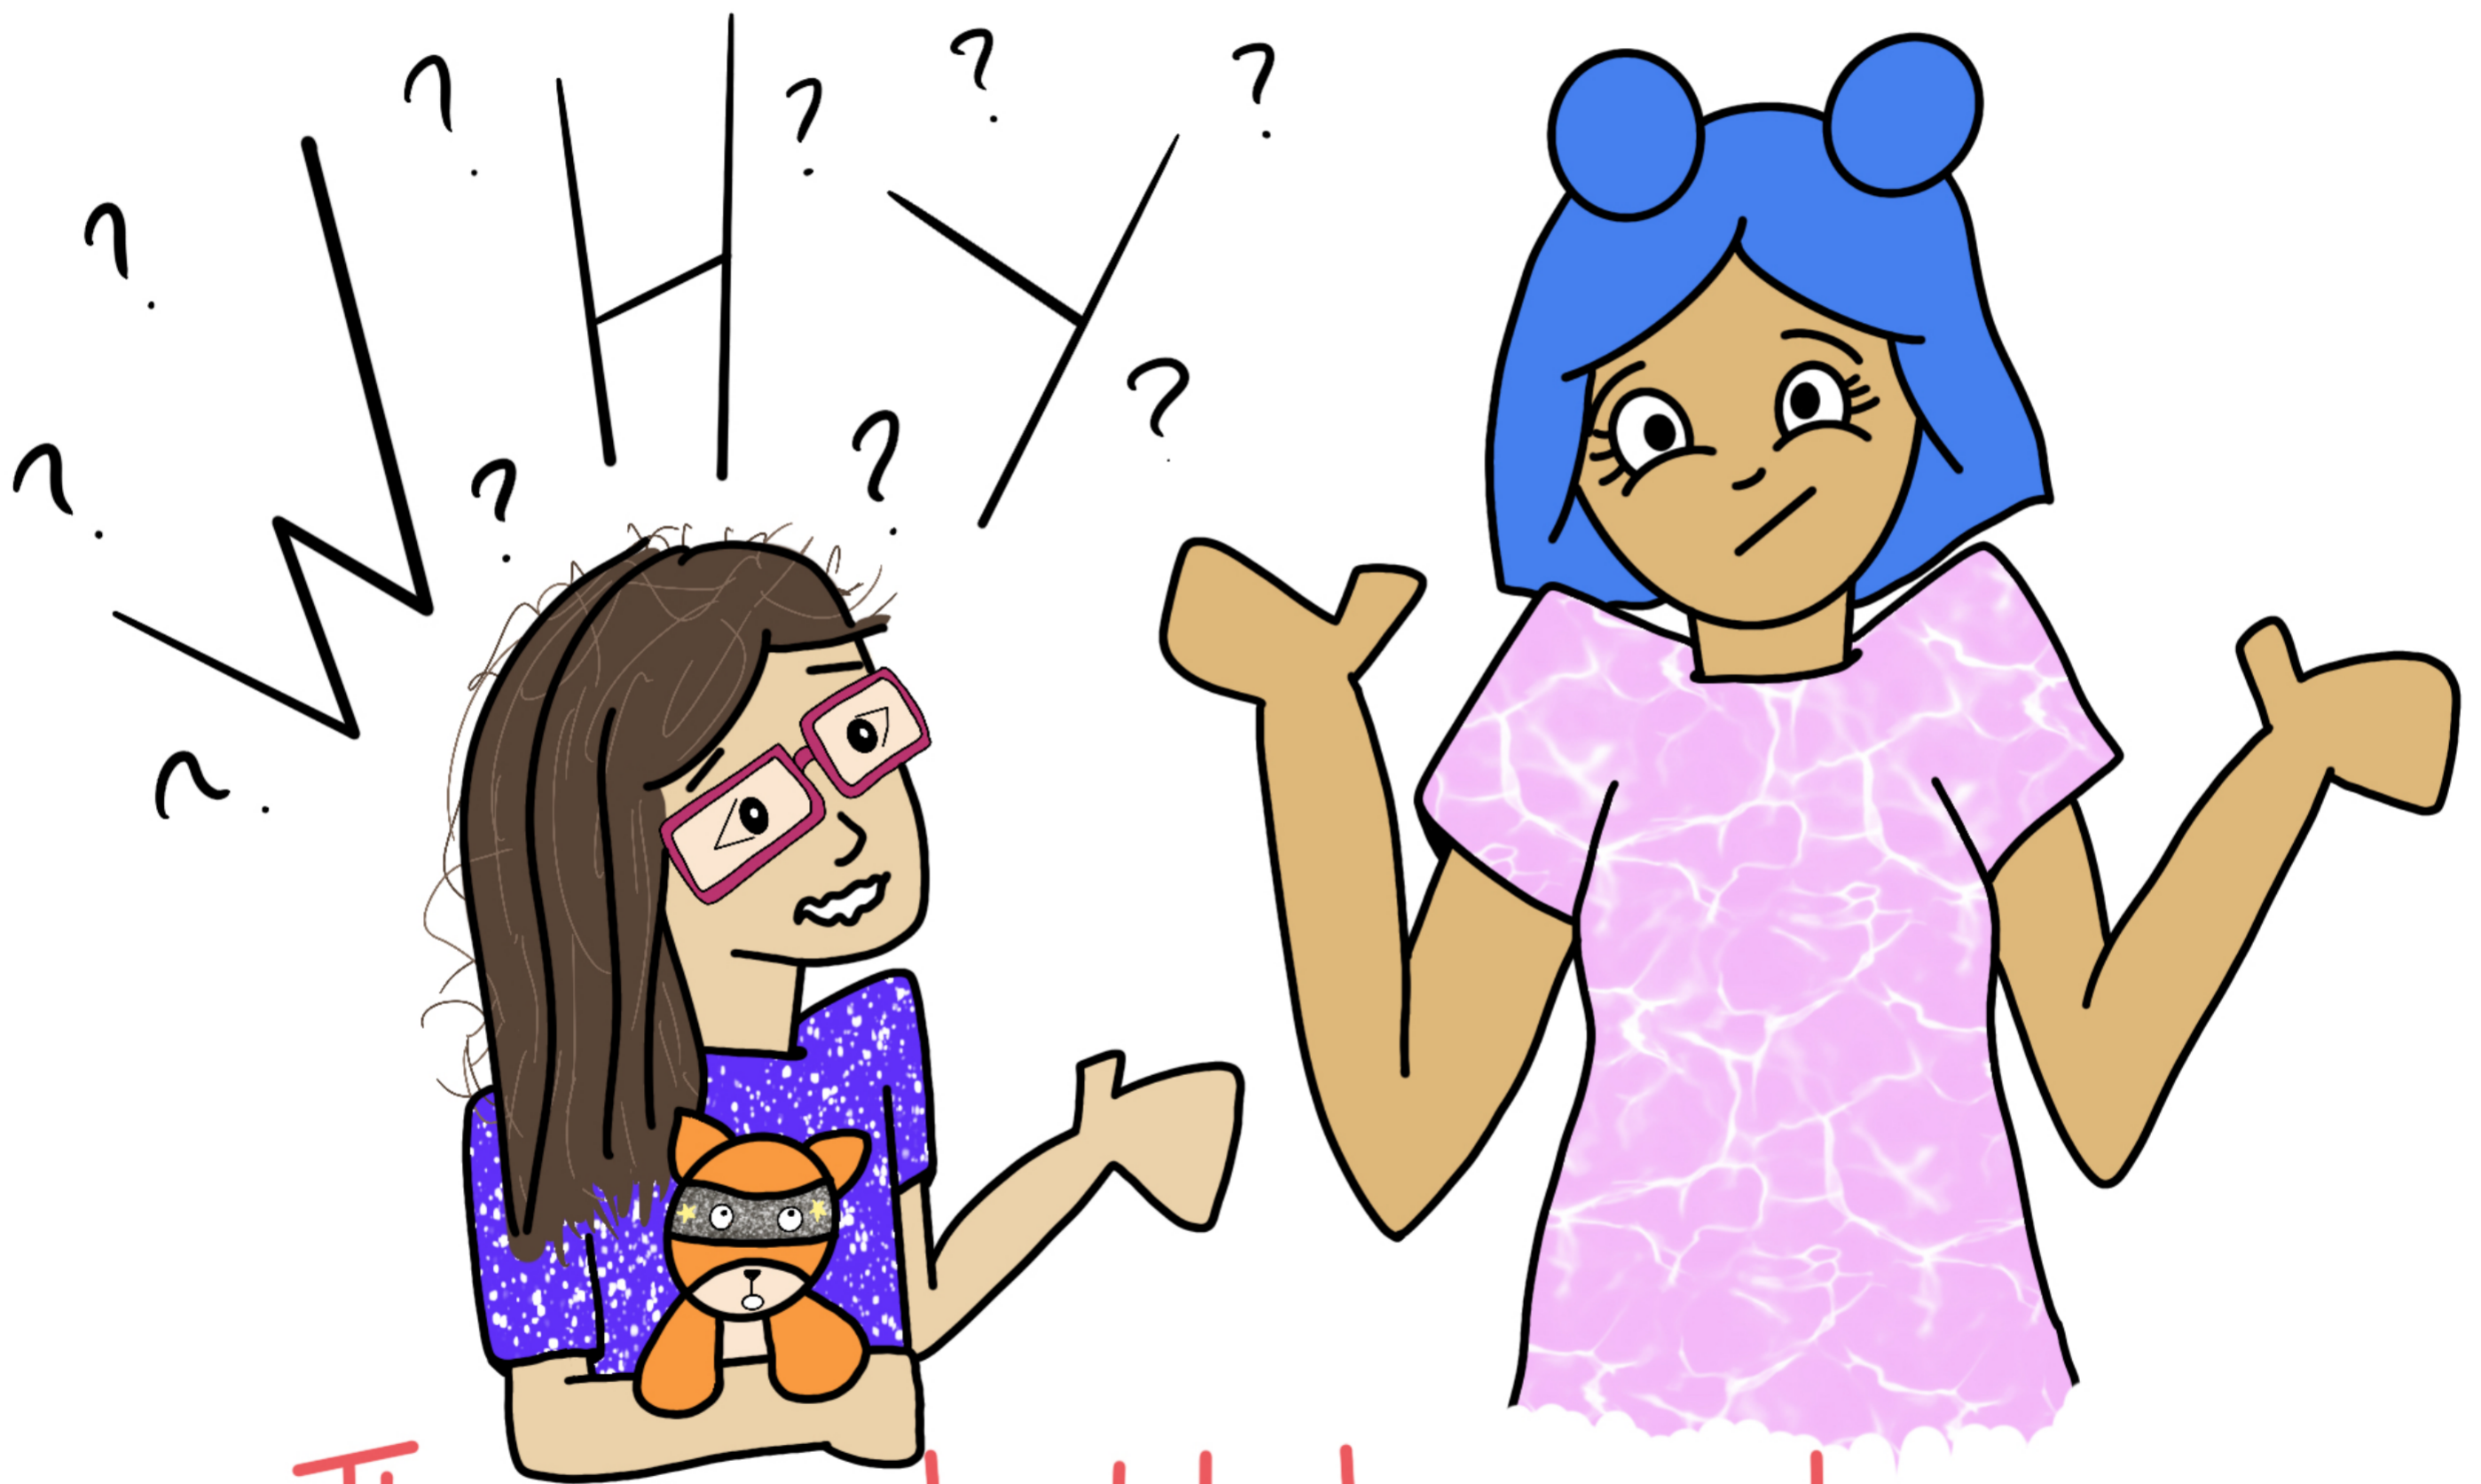

She'd make everyone laugh
Until it hurt their tummy.

Wherever she went the
Fox would go as well.

Like Xaxa she was brave
And her name was Bell.

They were befuddled when Blue
Said, 'Otto has cancer.'

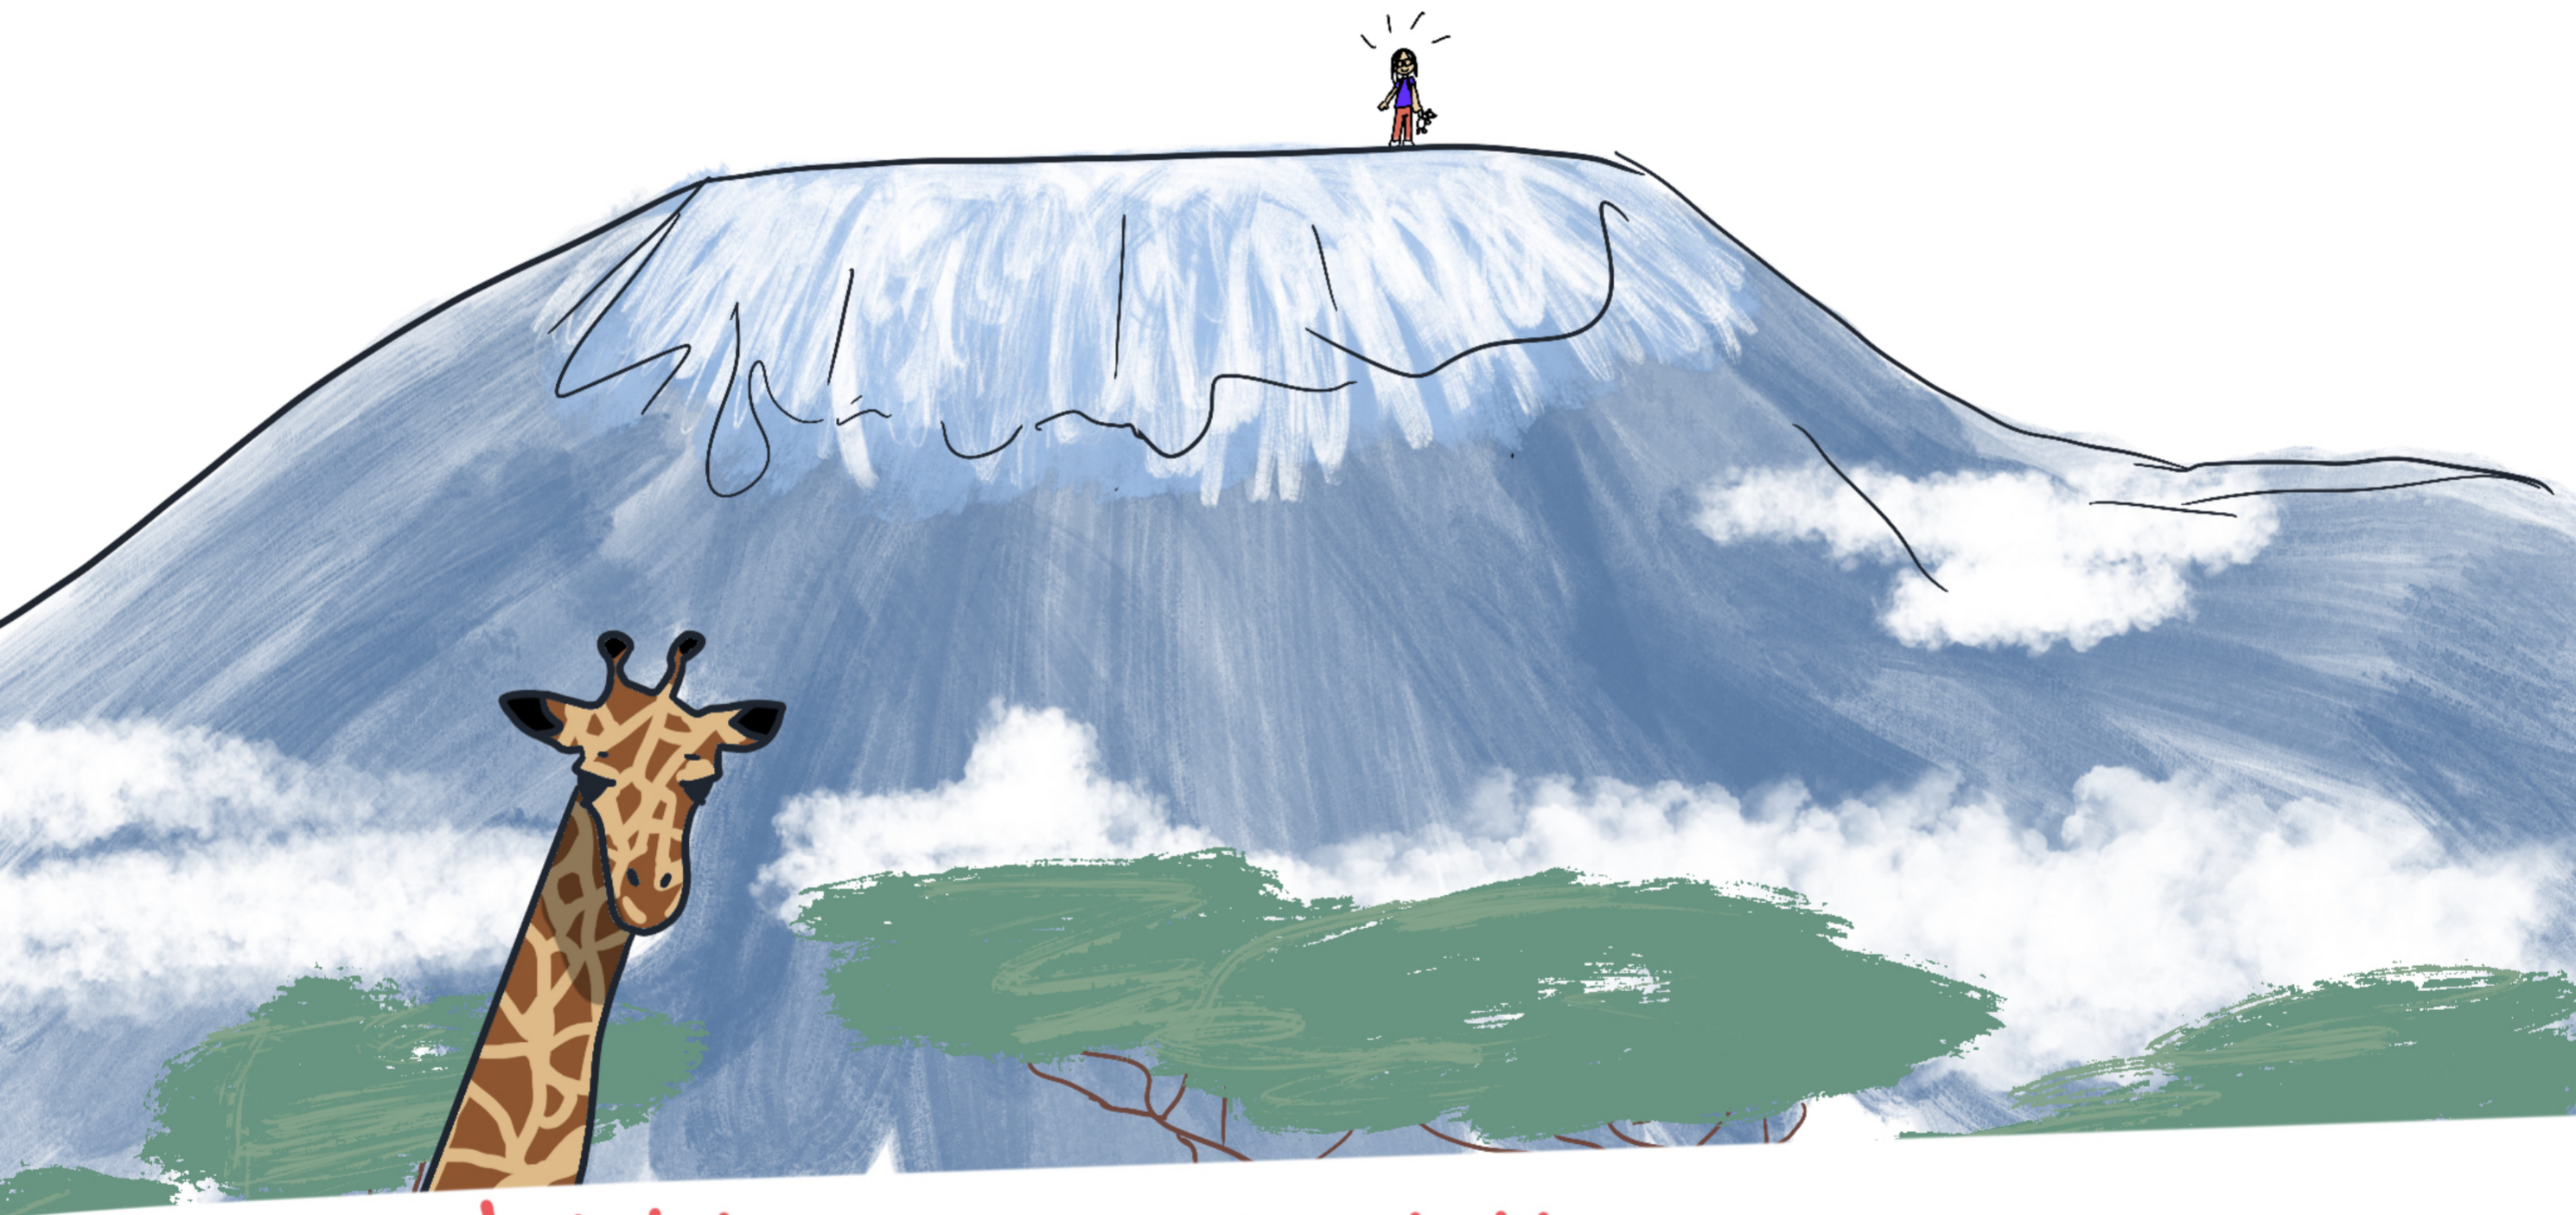

They wanted to know why,
But no one had an answer.

'Bell, these grown-ups know
Nothing! This is for sure.'

'We need to help Otto!'
'We need to find a cure!'

So off they went
Searching high and low

Until they reached the top
Of Kilimanjaro.

They encountered a master
Full of wisdom and understanding

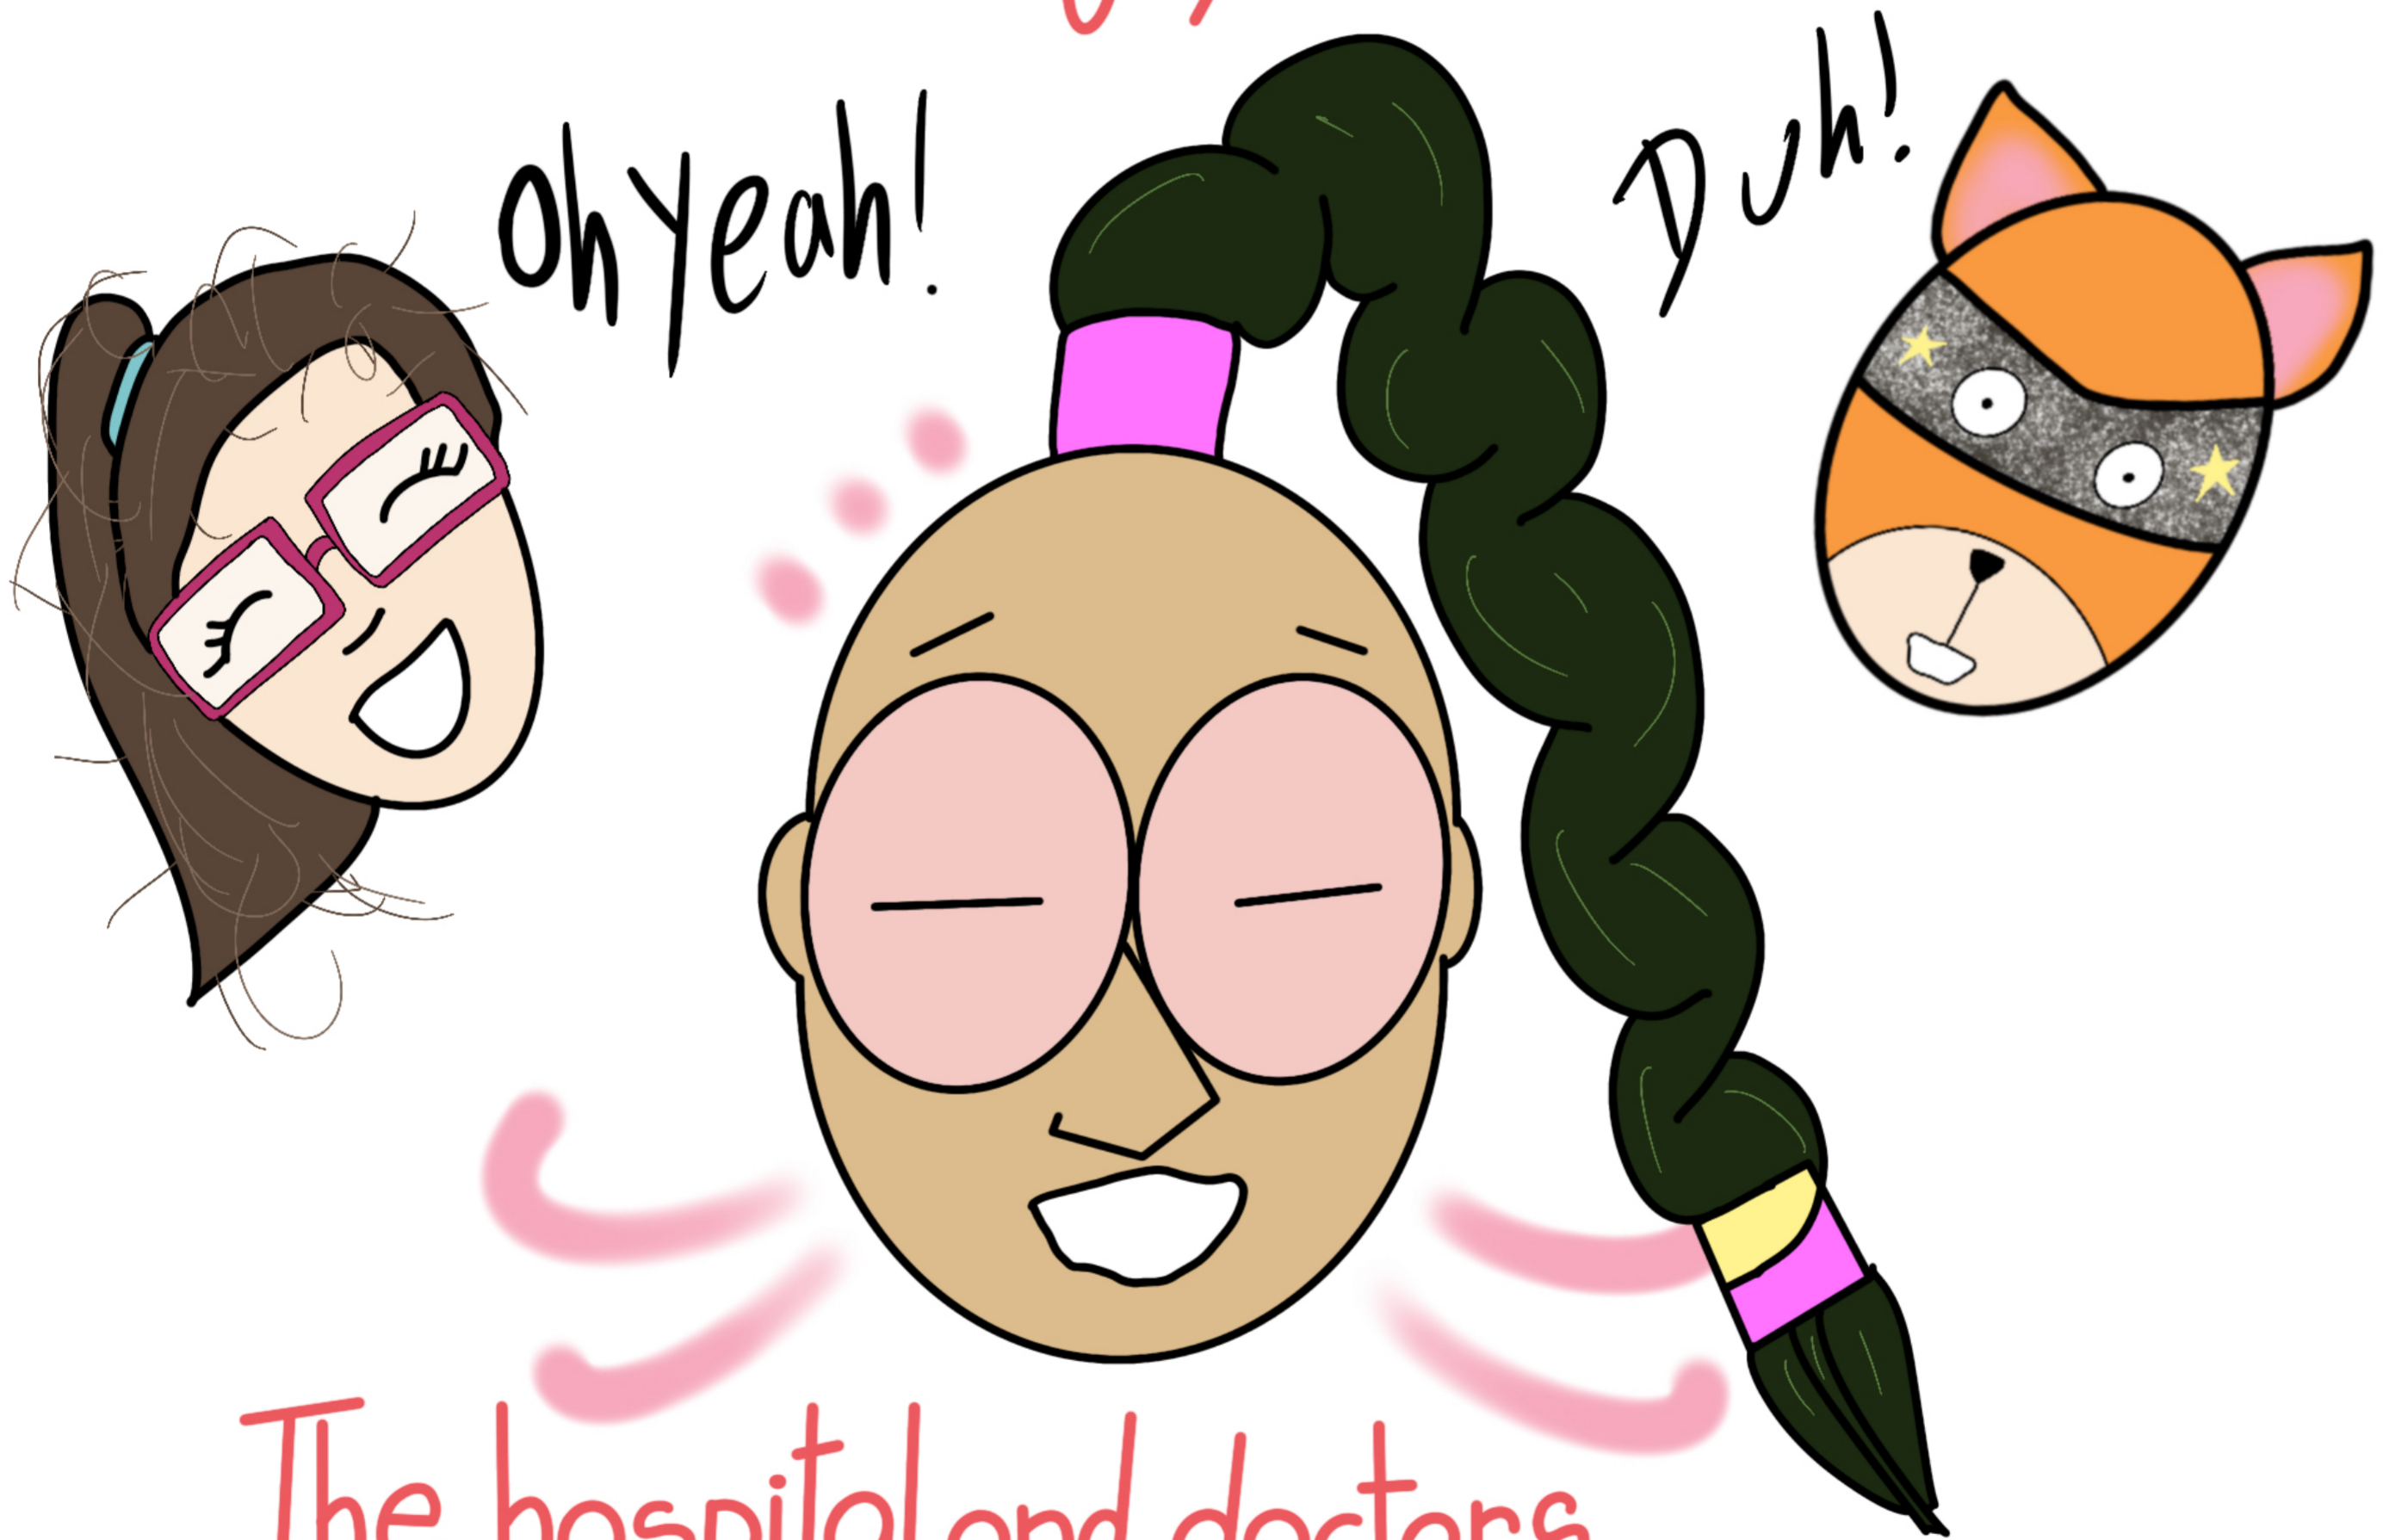

For this cure
I shall tell you

There's only
One thing...

'Be a friend to Otto, bring him
Comfort and joy.'

The hospital and doctors
Will look after that boy.'

They rushed back home
To be with Otto

They hugged him so tight
And wouldn't let go!
